ROLE SUMMARY

If you are passionate about access and inclusion, apply to be an Access Champions at this year's Melbourne Fringe. If you're studying disability support work or Auslan, or just interested in making the arts more inclusive, volunteering at Fringe is a great way to put what you've learnt into practice. You'll receive some in-depth volunteer training with our Access and Inclusion Coordinator, Carly Findlay and be placed in customer facing roles with an Access focus.

KEY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Being a key contact for patrons at Trades Hall who are deaf or have a disability
- Assist with navigation through the Trades Hall venues
- Communicate in Auslan in social settings
- Assist with any access support requests
- Feedback ideas on how to make our venues more accessible and inclusive
