HOW TO GET TO THE MOTLEY BAUHAUS

Nearest Tram Lines: #1, #6, #96, #11

Nearest Train Stations: Parliament Station (1.6km)

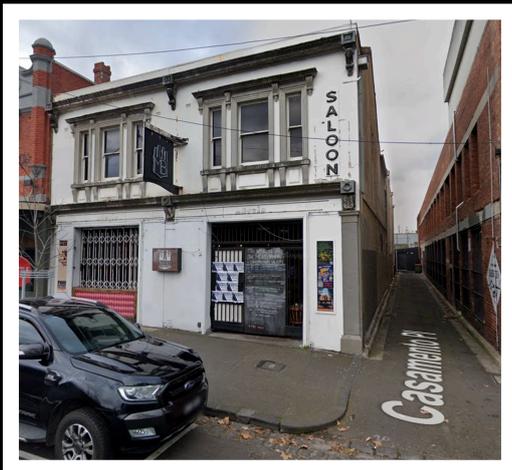

Bus Routes: 200, 207

Parking: Sometimes limited in the area, especially at peak times, there's typically some paid parking available on Drummond Street.

Bicycles: Public bike racks available on the street.

Taxi Drop-off: Taxi and Rideshare drivers should be able to drop riders off directly in front of the venue.

THE VENUE

The Motley Bauhaus is located close to the intersection of Elgin Street and Rathdowne Street, directly across the road from BP Carlton.

EXTERIOR

Entry to the venue is through this door on the Elgin Street Facade.

ENTRY

The Motley Bauhaus is a full bar, which doubles as a FOH area for its performance venues. Members of staff will be able to point you in the direction of the performance space.

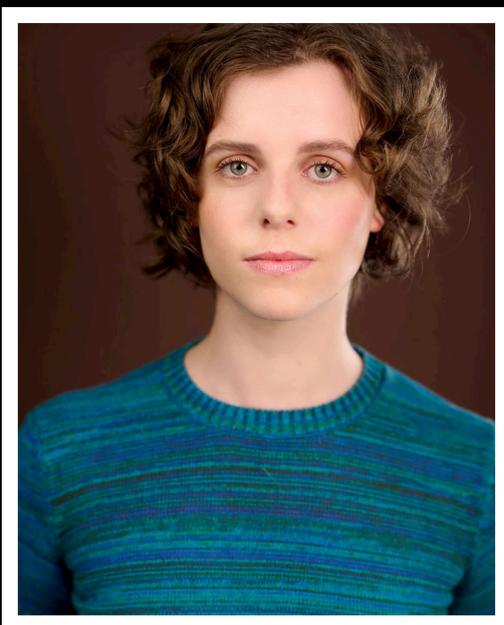

INSIDE / BOX OFFICE

This image is of the Cabaret stage, which will soon be turned into the Cellar theatre by the time Fringe 2024 has arrived. The seating layout will likely be different on the day of performance, but the stage will remain very similar.

THE CELLAR

OUR PERFORMER

Fruitcake is a One Person Show, and will be performed at all performances by Amanda King. Amanda's costume will be as shown or similar to the costume she wears in the poster on page 1 of this document. Amanda will have a large fake scar on her cheek during the performances, which is achieved with stage makeup (pictured below).

CONTENT ADVICE

Fruitcake will feature

- Moments of simulated distress
- Lights and sound
- Voiceover
- Limited coarse language
