

Venue Commissions: Independent Venues $2,500

About the opportunity

This year, Melbourne Fringe is offering a select number of $2,500 commissions to support the creation of new works at some of our key independent venues. This opportunity is open to any artist or collective based in Victoria, working in any artform.

Each event genre has been matched with a specific independent venue. As part of your funding application, you will also be applying to present at the corresponding venue;

- Cabaret or Theatre – Motley Bauhaus
- Circus or Kids – Gasworks Art Park
- Comedy – The Improv Conspiracy/Theory Bar
- Dance & Physical Theatre – Dancehouse
- Experimental, Words & Ideas, Music or Visual Arts – Abbotsford Convent

If your application is successful, your work must be presented at the designated venue associated with your genre.

Our application process is designed to be simple and artist-friendly, with minimal requirements - we just want to hear about your idea and how you plan to bring it to life.

KEY INFORMATION

Funding details

If successful, you will receive:

- $2,500 in commissioning funds;
- Guaranteed programming in the venue designated to your event genre.

Not included in the funding offer (i.e. there is no additional funding on top of the awarded amount, you will need to budget the following items):

You can find more details on the application process and format below.

CONTEXT AND EXPECTATIONS FOR FUNDED ARTISTS

Receiving support through the Fringe Fund isn't quite the same as a grant, but it isn't quite the same as having your work bought by a curated Festival – it falls somewhere in-between. That's because we've raised money from trusts, foundations, government bodies and private donors, and we'll need your help to ensure certain deliverables are met so we can acquit those funds. It's the circle of (funding) life.

There are a couple of key features of these commission opportunities to understand:

1. This is a self-produced commission.

That means we will pay successful applicants the full $2,500 commission fee, and they will be responsible to produce and deliver the event as part of the 2025 Melbourne Fringe Festival. We are also here to help with advice and guidance every step of the way, but this event will be produced by you and not our in-house team. You will be responsible for registering the event and undertaking all administration, planning, marketing and delivery. But you will also retain all profits!

2. The commission guarantees programming in a venue allocated based on your genre

Successful applicants will secure programming in one of the following venues according to their event genre:

- Cabaret or Theatre – Motley Bauhaus
- Circus or Kids – Gasworks Art Park
- Comedy – The Improv Conspiracy / Theory Bar
- Dance & Physical Theatre – Dancehouse
- Experimental, Words & Ideas, Music or Visual Arts – Abbotsford Convent

The venue's programming team will then work to place you in the most suitable slot. Final placements will be determined in consultation with the venue's team to ensure the best fit for your work within the festival program. This means you won't select your venue and timeslot outright, but they'll collaborate with you to create the best possible outcome.

3. You will work collaboratively with Melbourne Fringe.

This means: Melbourne Fringe is a key stakeholder in your event, unlike a grant where the funder just wants an acquittal report at the end. Because we have a vested interest in the success of your work, we may ask you to collaborate with Melbourne Fringe in certain ways while working on your project. We won't encroach on your artistic vision, but we might offer support including:

- dramaturgical advice to help you position the work for a Melbourne Fringe audience;
- advice or feedback for your budget, to help you work towards financial success; or
- inclusion in marketing or publicity opportunities; or
- suggesting the scale of your project might require you to allocate funds towards a producer, production manager or designer to help you achieve your creative vision.

To support you in this way, we will ask that you:

- update us on the creative development of the project, and share your project timeline, budget and marketing plan (once they're ready to share of course!);
- attend occasional meetings to discuss the work's progress and how we can better support you;
- be open and available to listen to our feedback, built on many years of experience.

We don't require a share of the work's intellectual property, but we do ask for permission to film or photograph the event for marketing, promotional and archival purposes. We also ask that you keep us updated on any future seasons of the work, and always credit Melbourne Fringe as an original funder.

APPLICATION & SELECTION PROCESS

We endeavour to make the application process easy and quick. You will be asked 6 required questions and 2 optional questions about yourself, your past work, and your idea.

In selecting the successful project(s) we will consider the following criteria:

- Concept: does your project put forward exciting ideas and creative thinking? Is it something new that we might not have funded before? Does it add something unique and exciting to what is currently being presented in the independent sector?

- Capacity: do you have the skills and the team to present what you want to achieve? Will you be able to deliver a high-quality outcome for your project? Are you aiming for best practice accessibility and inclusivity?

Questions you will be asked

You will need to provide us with answers to the following questions:

1. How would you describe your show? Please provide a practical description of what your work is and does (eg. tell us about the format, style, amount of collaborators, major topics and themes)
2. Who are the cast, crew, and creative collaborators? The people involved in the work and their roles - please indicate whether these people are confirmed or proposed
3. What is your previous experience? What have you and your team done in the past? We want to know about your past work, your skills, your inspirations, and what is most important to you in creating art. By “you” we mean you personally, as well as any other people that you consider as a “lead artist” on this work. As part of this you can share some highlights of your past work with us, and you may also provide links to up to three reviews.
4. How would you use these funds to make your idea a reality? What impact would $2,500 make on your project and what would you be allocating the money towards?
5. What do you think is exciting about your idea and why does it fit into this venue specifically? What is it about your project that is unique, boundary pushing, or exciting? And why do you think it would work at the venue you're applying for?
6. Please provide a draft timeline for the development of your project, if you are successful in receiving the funding. We're looking for an outline of your key dates. you can also link to a shareable document (please make sure you've turned on link sharing) E.g. 2 weeks of creative development with full cast (3-14 April). 4 weeks of full time rehearsal with full cast (1-26 May). etc.
7. Anything else you want to tell us? (optional) This is a chance to mention anything you think is important that these questions haven't asked you.
8. Do you have any access requirements for us to be aware of at this stage? (optional)

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the Festival Dates this year?

Your project must take place at some point during, and as part of, the 2025 Melbourne Fringe Festival, which will be 30th September – 19th October 2025.

Who owns the work?

The artist owns the work. Melbourne Fringe just has the right to premiere the work as part of the 2025 Melbourne Fringe Festival, and to capture images and/or video of the work for documentation, acquittal and marketing purposes; but the work belongs to the artist.

Can I apply to tour or remount an existing work?

Unfortunately not, as the funds for this stream are committed to commissioning new works – however, we're definitely open to ideas if how you might redevelop an existing work in a new or exciting way. If you have done a development before, or perhaps a work-in-progress showing or season – that's OK! As long as, hand on heart, you can say this is the premiere first season, it'll probably be fine. If you're unsure of whether your new ideas would make it a "new work" or not, please just get in touch!

What do you mean by "best practice accessibility and inclusivity"?

We mean that we will be prioritising projects that consider access and inclusion as central to the concept. If you haven't already had a chance to read it, please make sure you check out our Accessibility Zone for ideas of how to embed access into your early planning.

Why do you ask demographic questions as part of the application process?

We have a commitment to ensuring that events Melbourne Fringe funds collectively represent the breadth of Melbourne's diverse communities, and we have specific quotas and targets of funding allocations towards our communities of focus, which include artists who are: First Nations, People of Colour, culturally and linguistically diverse people, Deaf, Disabled, and LGBTQIA+ people with a separate quota to specifically support transgender artists. Assigning quotas to our funding allocations ensures that we are properly representing lead artists from these communities.
